All of our banners are produced by one manufacturer to insure the same high and consistent level of quality. All designs are multi-color and will have you company name, logo and artwork. Basic design services are included in your banner sponsorship package. It's as easy as sending an e-mail with a print ready digital version of your logo, phone number and website information.

All business card ads are black & white and will have your company name, logo and artwork. Please send an email with a print ready digital version of your logo, phone number and website information.
